Pick up time from 08:15 am to 08:45 am

Duration from 9:00 a.m. - 03:00 p.m. Pick up from the hostel from 8:15 to 8:30 am The tour starts at 9:00 am to go to the town of Maras, passing through very typical towns and beautiful landscapes such as Chinchero, which we can enjoy on our tour, arrival and visit to the following places:

MARAS: Located in the province of Urubamba at 3300 m.s.n.m. from there you can see the Vilcanota mountain range and the snowy peaks: "El Chicón" (5530 m.s.n.m), "La Verónica" (5682 m.s.n.m). At present, this picturesque town keeps attractions of the PRE-Hispanic, colonial and republican period, highlighting in the town streets and colonial portals with shields of the nobles and caciques of the XVII and XVIII centuries.

MORAY: It is located about 7 km southwest of Maras and 53 km from Cusco with an altitude of 3,385 m.s. It is a unique archaeological group of its kind in the region. These are gigantic holes that were used by the Incas who built terraces or agricultural terraces with their respective irrigation channels, it is therefore a greenhouse prototype, the biggest hole has a depth of 150 m and an average height of platforms is 1.80 m, between each one of them.

Shared service guided in two languages

Pick up time from 08:15 am to 08:45 am

Duration of 9:00 am - 3:00 pm We visit Tipón, Pikillacta and Andahuaylillas

Tipón: A large impressive cultivation area containing 12 terraces that are currently cultivated, whose walls were built with finely carved stones. Even more impressive is the irrigation system that is still serving agriculture and the advantage is the water intake in the spring season.

Pikillacta: Presents characteristics of a large urban center corresponding to the development time of the Wari Empire with more than a thousand constructions between squares, colcas (food deposits), courts or houses, temples, long and narrow streets with buildings that were up to 4 stories high.

Andahuaylillas: Typical Andean village of the time of the colony of singular origin and architecture. It stands out in its Catholic temple of the colonial era with a beautiful decoration and mural painting of the seventeenth and eighteenth century known as the Sistine Chapel of Cusco. We will be returning to the city of Cusco at 03:00 p.m. approximately.

TOUR TO PALCCOYO.

A wonderful walk to the "New Rainbow Mountain" through the area of the so called "Cordillera Arco Iris" (Rainbow Mountain Range). This spot has gained fame due to the unprecedented coloring in the sediments of this part of the high Andes. Since agencies in Cusco started to offer it, Rainbow Mountain quickly became one of the most popular day tours from Cusco.

But this tour is different from the regular Rainbow Mountain Trek: it enters the area of the colored mountains through a different access and grants spectacular views of the range. Prepare yourself for a rare and amazing scenery and make sure your camera has enough battery!

Pick-up at your hotel at around 06.00 am.

We leave Cusco with our own private transportation and head to the south of the city into the Southern Valley. We pass valleys, rivers, mountains and some smaller communities. Our starting point is already at 4900 meters above sea level.

We hike uphill for about 45 minutes to the highest point of our excursion which is at 5000 meters. We pass the unique formations of the rainbow mountain range.

The view at the snow-capped Ausangate Mountain is breath-taking. Once we are on the top of our view point, we will have the Vilcanote Mountain range in front of us. You will have all the time to rest and to take pictures. Afterwards, we descent for about 30 minutes back to the starting point. We take the bus to the place to have our lunch and return to Cusco where we arrive around 5.30 pm.

Departs: Between 06:00 - 06:20 am from your hotel or other place in the city center

Returns: Around 05:30 - 06:30 pm

Included:

- Pick up from your hotel or the city center of Cusco
- Transport
- Professional bilingual guide (English / Spanish)
- Breakfast and lunch
- Entrance fee
- First aid kit with oxygen tank

Not included:

- Drinks and snacks.
- Dinner
- Tips for the guide.
